

EAA course in male subfertility

The Swedish Andrological Society, SAF and the Danish Andrological Society, DAS have the pleasure to invite to a course in male subfertility. The course is organized under the umbrella of the European Academy of Andrology, EAA.

Course venue: Malmö, Sweden;

Date: 11-13 of April 2016

Content: The course will focus on diagnosis and treatment of infertile men. A pre-test and a written examination will be included in the course. For details, please, see the attached programme

Target group: The course is primarily directed toward specialists in urology, endocrinology, gynaecology and general practitioners or others with an interest in male fertility.

Language: All lectures and practical training in ultrasound of testicles will be held in English.

Course venue: MFC, Medical Research Center, lilla aulan, Jan Waldenströms gata 5, SUS, Malmö, Sweden

Fee:

- 1000 SEK for members of the the Swedish Andrological Society, the Danish Andrological Society or the European Academy of Andrology, EAA.
- The fee for non-members is 1250 SEK.

The fee includes lunch, coffee on all three days and a dinner in the evening on the 11 of April. More information concerning the dinner will be given at the start of the course.

Registration: By email to katarina.link@skane.se before the 15 of March 2016.
Confirmation and information concerning bank account will then be sent by email.