YES	NO
		I am a current member of the EAA
		I am a fellow in training for the "Clinical Andrologist Exam"(certificate from the Center director is required)
		I understand there is a Course Fee to be paid that will only cover the teaching material (not accommodation/travel/food)
		I understand 25 EAA credits must be collected to obtain EAA ultrasound certification.
		I understand it is not required to collect "consecutive" credits.
		I understand "practical part" lasts 4 weeks, either consecutive or 4 times one week, upon agreement with the fellow and it is held in EAA Centers of Florence and Rome
		I understand there is an initial theoretical part made of frontal lessons and videos that will be held in a single day and will host all the fellows.
		I have attached to the present form the CV and publication record
